OVER AND OVER

Over and over I try - to say to this world goodbye
But I keep on coming back for more
One day I'm up on my feet - the next day cold in the street
Will I try to take my life away

It's only because I love you so
That I won't leave this broken hearted world
It's just so hard to accept - when you tell me you have no regrets
Being alone ain't easy for me

If I don't mean much to you
Please then tell me what to do
It's either my life or yours that's in vain
Baby I just can't take all the pain

My life's been full of just dreams
Nostalgical non memories
Finding out what one's self is inside

Ever since I have found you
You've taken me out from my blue
Now you're willing to throw it all away

Oh - It's only because I love you so
That I won't leave this broken hearted world
It's just so hard to accept - when you tell me you have no regrets
Being alone ain't easy for me

If I don't mean much to you
Please then tell me what to do
It's either my life or yours that's in vain
Baby can't take all the pain

If I don't mean much to you
Please then tell me what to do
It's either my life or yours that's in vain
Baby I just can't take all the pain

Over and over I try - to say to this world goodbye
