STILL LIVING IN YOUR DREAMS

Well they say follow your dreams but I don't know
It ain't hard all you do is just let go
But that's the hardest part it seems
Living in your dreams

Life what a wonder but it can get you down
When you see the person you want to be
Still living in your dreams
When you see the person you want to be
Still living in your dreams

And I don't know the reasons why
Why they say life can pass you by
But that's not reality
It's living in your dreams
It's still living in your dreams

Time goes on as you go walking by
After forty years of reality
Still living in your dreams
After forty years of reality
It's still living in your dreams

Well they say follow your dreams but I don't know
It ain't hard all you do is just let go
Well that's the hardest part it seems
Living in your dreams
Well that's the hardest part it seems
Still living in your dreams
