SUPERHERO ROCKSTAR

Wakin up on a Sunday morning
Feel my pulse and the bloods still pumpin
Never really went to sleep from Saturday night

All around the crowd was shakin
Under me the stage was breakin
Never really had the chance to end it right

Don't look to me I'm not anybody's
Superhero Rockstar
I'm just another guy playing a guitar
Living in this world of make believe

To my left Big D is jamming
Bottlenecks off the clank are slammin
You can see the heat that's rising off of the floor

Until that moments over
Like Crimson Clover I'm lookin forward
To see what's in your eyes and it's me

Don't look to me I'm not anybody's
Superhero Rockstar
I'm just another guy playing a guitar
Living in this world of make believe

(Repeat)

I'm not your Superhero Rockstar
He's not your Superhero Rockstar
We're not your Superhero Rockstar
Standing on this stage for you

(Repeat)
