YOU ARE SO REAL

When the rain is pouring and the sun's gone
And there's teardrops in my eyes
I can reach out and touch a special someone with a smile
She can take me walking through the sunshine
And melt my cares away
She just simplifies my life by being there

You are so real
You set me in motion
You make me stand still

Well we made our home up in the mountains
Left old dreams and cares behind
And each day I walk along side her - in a dream
And sometimes I'll pick a flower
Place it in her hair
She just simplifies my life by being there

You are so real
You set me in motion
You make me stand still

You are so real
You set me in motion
You make me stand still
